Good News for All People

You don't have to look far to see the despair and struggle in our world. These past few years we've been reminded of this reality. So many people hurting and alone. So many living life without hope. There is no doubt about it. We live in a broken world. Yet there is hope. There is Jesus.

We can't forget—the Gospel of Jesus Christ truly is Good News for all people. That is the joy we bring as believers. That is the message we share as a team. We stand for hope, peace, love, joy, and forgiveness...all found in Jesus Christ. In Christ alone—no matter our outward circumstances—we rejoice!

This year, we have had the privilege and joy of sharing this Good News with millions throughout the world. And that is what this issue of Proclaim! is all about. Joy.

We've seen God's hand at work this year through outreach events and gatherings all around the world. We have been blessed and humbled by the way He continues to use this team. Through digital strategies. Through festivals. As we raise up the next generation of evangelists. As we walk alongside cities in their own efforts to seek the peace and prosperity of their region. It is good, lasting, fulfilling, eternal work. And nothing brings us more joy than to do this work alongside friends like you.

I pray you find encouragement, peace, and hope as you read through this issue of Proclaim! God is still on the throne. He is still guiding and blessing and changing lives. And He's using you to accomplish His work!

Don't miss the wonderful report on our groundbreaking festival in Manchester this past July. It's on page 10. Celebrate as you read about our festival in Connecticut on page 28. And be encouraged by Andrew's personal thoughts on the current state of our world on page 6.

You are such a valuable partner in this kingdom work. I pray you know that. And together, I'm confident the Lord will continue to use us to bring His peace and joy to this dark world.

If ever there was a time for us to share the Good News boldly, it's now! And quite frankly, the doors for ministry are wide open. Let's pray the Lord will find us faithful.

a better day is coming.

A DEVOTIONAL BY: ANDREW PALAU

God has adopted me into his family.

There's so much pain and suffering in this world. We all feel it, but...you and I know that a better day is coming. This hope, found only in Jesus, is the reason Dad gave his life to evangelism. It's why I'm doing the same! And it's why so many of you have walked alongside us—some of you for decades—our allies in proclaiming the Good News of Jesus to the ends of the earth.

Over the last few months, one of our most effective online outreaches EVER has filled my heart with hope and prayers for all the hurting people right in the thick of their worst days. Your help makes it possible to reach these people right where they are.

The people who just got off work, and they're sitting in their driveway scrolling for a few minutes, reluctant to venture into their less-than-peaceful home. The people taking a break between grueling shifts at the hospital emergency room, or sitting alone late at night, wondering if life is still worth living. People everywhere who don't yet believe a better day is coming, but deep down...their souls are longing for it.

We are all touched by rejection, emptiness, and loneliness. In the news, we hear daily—endlessly—about awful misdeeds, until our hearts grow numb to the grimness of reality. But the darkness of evil and hatred affects people in real ways—we can't ignore it.

It breaks God's heart, but it doesn't surprise Him. He was there when evil first infested the heart of humanity. When Adam and Eve rebelled in the garden, future generations became tethered to Adam's legacy of sin.

Humanity even chose to crucify the most beautiful one—Jesus, the living God.

Acts 3 says...You handed Him over to be killed. You disowned Him before the ruler Pilate. You disowned the Holy and Righteous One. And you asked that a murderer be released instead. You killed the Author of Life.

The world is dark. And this is not the way we were designed to experience it.

Our automatic response is to try a quick fix—to comfort ourselves with empty things, trying to quiet the pain. But we're left depleted, pierced by the enemy's arrows, and no amount of painkiller or Band-Aids will stop the bleeding.

We can't heal ourselves. But from the very beginning, God had a plan to rescue us.

Jesus, also called the Second Adam, became human and walked through the depths of this world's brokenness. Right in the middle of this twisted world, Jesus came! God Himself, the Holy One, came to us, the sinful and broken ones.

When He was crucified, He bore the penalty of all of our sins—not only yours but the sins of the whole world!

You can download the e-book or get the reading plan on YouVersion—just search “better day”.

He died a sinner’s death, but He was sinless! So, death could not hold Him! He rose from the grave, cleansed us, and reconciled us to Himself. We are no longer bound to Adam’s deadly legacy. We are heirs in Christ’s kingdom. Isn’t that beautiful? The truth of what Christ has done never fails to amaze me. And, I know you feel the same way, because we’re in this together, partnering to bring this wonderful news to everyone who hasn’t heard it.

There are so many yearning for peace, fulfillment—real love that flows to all people, unhindered by pride...it’s not just a beautiful dream. It’s what we were made for.

Together, we are telling them about God’s promise—a better day is coming.

We’ll see Him face-to-face.

He’ll return to the earth and undo every wrong thing.

Death itself will be defeated.

Every tear will be wiped away.

Sorrow and mourning will forever cease.

Isaiah 9 foretells the return of Jesus. It says...The people who walk in darkness will see a great light. For those who live in a land of deep darkness, a light will shine.

Revelation tells us this about heaven—In the city there is no need of sun or moon because the glory of God gives it its light, and its lamp is the Lamb. (That’s Jesus.)

Can you imagine the searing brightness of the world that awaits? The light of the Lamb will flood over everything, and the darkness that surrounds us now will be no more. We’ll live and worship in the presence of the Lord—together, forever!

It will happen! But, when?! The waiting hurts, just as it says in Romans 8. We are groaning, along with all creation, as in the pains of childbirth.

The good news is, heaven isn’t just our afterlife. Heaven is God’s powerful kingdom, and it’s already started breaking into our dark world. The wicked scheme of Satan was defeated by the loving faithfulness of God.

Jesus came! He tore open the veil that separated us from God. He sent us the Holy Spirit—the Comforter and Advocate—to live within us. He is our peace, our joy that defies understanding, and our ever-present help as we journey through the valley of the shadow of death. We get to taste heaven as it invades this sin-stained land, driving away the darkness with Christ’s wonderful light.

In John 8:12, Jesus promised to give us the light of life. He said we would never walk in darkness again. Though darkness surrounds us, His light shines bright within us.

My friend, I bet you know someone oppressed by the harshness of the world, whose hope is like a flickering candle, about to go out.

You are a vessel, carrying Jesus, the Light of the World. You are helping spread bits of heaven with each Gospel message that goes out. His light in you is a beacon illuminating the path to Jesus for people in your life and beyond, who wander in darkness.

His light in you is a beacon illuminating the path to Jesus for people in your life...

Though we ache for Christ’s return, 2 Peter 3:9 tells us...the Lord isn’t actually being slow about His promise. He’s being patient for our sake so that as many people as possible can be saved. He doesn’t want anyone to be destroyed but wants everyone to repent.

God is giving us extra time for a reason—so we can share Jesus with all people. That’s what God wants more than anything—to bring many sons and daughters into His family, and you are helping make it a reality.

The message of the Gospel is an urgent one because the pain of the broken world is so severe. But, thanks to your partnership, my friends, we have been able to spread the message far and wide—that a better day is coming. And we aren’t going to stop!

We get to spend our whole lives participating in what God is doing, carrying out the mission that brings such joy to the Father’s heart. Salvation for the lost and wandering. Rest for the weary. Family for the lonely. Healing for the wounded. This is the future we have to look forward to. And together, we are bringing people with us, beckoning many into His promise of a better day.

Let’s keep banding together to bring this Good News into the world. 📖

Largest Citywide Campaign in the UK in a Generation

Your partnership led to more than 4,800 responses to the Gospel through Festival Manchester

BY: ALYSSA JAMES, Staff Writer

For years, the culture in the United Kingdom has been moving away from Christianity and toward secularism. It's created an environment of apathy and left many people completely oblivious to the Good News of Jesus.

Churches sit empty.
 Congregations have dwindled to a precious few.
 Pastors are discouraged.
 Teens are apathetic.
 For many, hope seems to be lost.

But we know that's not the truth. HOPE IS HERE, FOUND IN JESUS.

We were excited to bring that hope to the UK when the invitation was extended to come to Manchester to help put on a massive evangelistic festival. We knew it was the perfect place. A place that needed the hope of Jesus. We rejoiced as God continued to open the doors for our team to go to the UK and proclaim His Good News.

Partnering with The Message Trust, more than 300 local churches, and thousands of local believers, our effort together proclaimed the Gospel on a massive scale, introducing tens of thousands of people to Jesus Christ in Manchester and throughout the entire region.

REACHING OUT THROUGH AFFINITY EVENTS

Leading up to the free, 3-day festival, we held more than 40 events to further share the Gospel and bless various local communities. Outreaches included events such as a skate night for youth, banquets for the homeless, a women's dinner, a business and civic leader's gala, a Latin outreach, prison ministry, and the festival itself. And over the past several months prior to the festival, we saw the Lord move through school tours and youth work, our Friendship Evangelism Training, "Love Where U Live" outreaches, and so much more.

One of the ladies who attended a banquet geared toward vulnerable women shared, "This was the best day of my life. I felt safe today. I don't feel safe anywhere, but this was an oasis for me in my unsafe life."

LIVES CHANGED

God's love, grace, and truth reigned during our time in Manchester. Ian, a local, met Jesus during our business and civic leader's gala when Andrew shared his testimony of God's grace and protection.

After the event, Andrew was able to talk with Ian and hear his story. He asked if he had heard the Good News in any way before that evening, and Ian shared that, no, he never had. That night, Ian was moved to respond to the Good News. You could see the excitement and happiness on his face as he told people that he was saved that evening.

Curious about his response, Andrew asked, "What connected about tonight with your willingness to say yes to Jesus?"

"That's easy, the plane crash," Ian told Andrew, referencing his testimony that he shared that night. Andrew had shared about God protecting him and his family in a plane crash years ago, which included the encouragement that God never promises tomorrow, but He has a purpose for our lives today.

"God saved you for a purpose, and I always felt that God had saved me for a purpose," Ian explained to Andrew, revealing the cuts on his wrists, explaining he had cut himself years ago and was saved from dying from the self-inflicted wounds. He knew then that some way, somehow, for some reason, God saved him that day. Yet, he had always wondered why he didn't die... "Now I know what my purpose is." His purpose was to meet Jesus, experience His grace, and be saved, which we had the pleasure of witnessing during our time in Manchester.

People are longing for the Good News. And we are praising God for moving among hearts and bringing in the harvest in Manchester.

AS PART OF THE BUSINESS & CIVIC GALA, ANDREW SHARED ABOUT AMERICAN AIRLINES FLIGHT 331, WHICH CRASHED IN JAMAICA ON DECEMBER 22, 2009. ANDREW, ALONG WITH HIS FAMILY AND 149 OTHER PASSENGERS, WERE ON BOARD. ANDREW WRITES ABOUT THIS EVENT IN HIS BOOK, THE SECRET LIFE OF A FOOL.

THE EVENT WAS HELD IN A HANGAR UNDER ONE OF THE FEW FAMED CONCORDE AIRPLANES STILL IN EXISTENCE.

“For I am not ashamed of the Gospel, because it is the power of God that brings salvation to everyone who believes.”

THE CULMINATING FESTIVAL

The evangelistic festival included fantastic performances from the likes of Goodboys, Lecrae, Matt Redman, Guvna B, Kingdom Choir, LZ7, Soulbox, Philippa Hanna, Brightline, OTC, Amongst Wolves, Galactus Jack, Soul Children's Choir, Saintz, and Sovereign. Andrew Palau—along with Andy Hawthorne, founder of the Message Trust, and Ben Jack, head of Advance—shared a clear Gospel message and challenged those in the crowd, as well as those who tuned in online, to give their lives to Jesus Christ. The three-day free festival also hosted a funfair, a Kids Zone, a skatepark, stunt demos from professional skaters, BMX, and FMX athletes (in partnership with The Stunt Dudes), and multiple presentations of the Gospel.

LASTING FRUIT

One of the most exciting aspects of a festival is how the local Church steps up to connect responders to a local community of believers. During this festival, we saw people volunteer and serve with us in Manchester who came to Christ during our previous campaigns in the United Kingdom. They were once the person in the crowd hearing the Gospel and raising their hand as the Holy Spirit prompted them. Now, they're part of the Kingdom and serving God and others, and we were blessed to see them serving people at the Festival.

EMMA OWEN (PICTURED BELOW ON THE RIGHT) GAVE HER LIFE TO CHRIST WHEN LUIS PREACHED THE GOSPEL AT QPR STADIUM IN 1984. THIRTY-EIGHT YEARS LATER, SHE WAS A KEY PART OF FESTIVAL MANCHESTER AS SHE COUNSELED OTHERS WHO RESPONDED TO THE GOOD NEWS DURING THE GOSPEL INVITATIONS.

"THE LORD HAS DONE great THINGS FOR US, and we are filled with joy."
PSALM 126:3

MATT REDMAN ATTENDED THE 1984 MISSION TO LONDON, AND UPON HEARING THE GOOD NEWS FROM LUIS, GAVE HIS LIFE TO CHRIST. NOW A GRAMMY AWARD-WINNING MUSICIAN, HE LED WORSHIP AT FESTIVAL MANCHESTER 38 YEARS LATER.

PAULA DID NOT COME FROM A CHRISTIAN HOME BUT WAS INVOLVED IN A YOUTH GROUP. THE GROUP SHE ATTENDED INVITED HER TO THE 2003 LUIS PALAU MANCHESTER FESTIVAL. THERE, SHE RESPONDED TO THE GOSPEL AND DEDICATED HER LIFE TO CHRIST. NINETEEN YEARS LATER, SHE WAS AT FESTIVAL MANCHESTER, SERVING AS A LEADER IN THE KIDS' AREA.

Who knows what lasting fruit will come from this festival, but we know that God is continually moving in the UK and beyond. We trust there will be many stories of changed lives as more than 4,800 people responded to the Gospel through Festival Manchester and the affinity events.

While local leaders continue in the efforts in Manchester, our team will move on to support similar campaigns in cities across the globe. Upcoming festivals are in the works with leaders in Cairo, Egypt; Buenos Aires, Argentina; San José, Costa Rica; and many more. 🇺🇸

You Plant seeds of living hope—

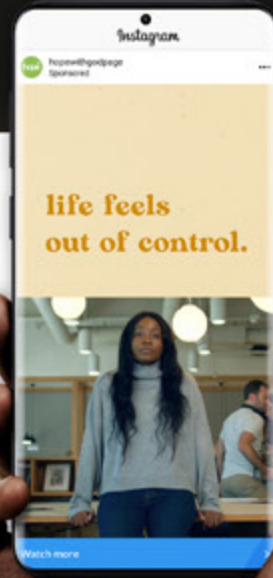

24 hours a day in nearly every nation on earth.

Every new life begins with a tiny seed. In some of the darkest, most hard-to-reach places, hearts are ready to come alive in Christ. But who will plant the seed? For more than 60 years, the Luis Palau Association has blanketed the earth with seeds of living hope.

And today, because of technology, we're able to plant Gospel seeds farther and faster than we've ever been able to do before in human history.

Just as Jesus was moved with compassion when He saw the crowds, we are moved with compassion when we see that more than 4 billion people worldwide use the Internet.

The Internet can be a pretty dark place. When people pull out their phones, they're usually scrolling looking for connection, looking for hope. People come to the Internet with all of their heaviest, darkest questions, looking for answers that we know can be found only in Jesus.

01 Together, we reach one million people with Gospel ads every day.

It starts with a seed.

Through strategic digital advertising campaigns on search engines and social media, we put Gospel ads in front of about 1 million people each day—24 hours a day, 365 days a year.

Andrew and Wendy, along with the creative team, share the hope of Jesus with warmth, empathy, and biblical clarity. Written and video messages capture hearts by engaging with universal struggles such as anxiety, exhaustion, and identity.

02 When People say, "Yes!" to Jesus.

They come alive.

When someone's heart is gripped with a Gospel ad, they have an opportunity to click to read a clear Gospel presentation, sharing about God's love, our sin, and Christ's offer of salvation.

At the bottom of that page, they're given an option to pray right at that moment to receive Christ—and to let us know about their decision. Again and again, we hear from people across the globe who felt God meet them as they prayed. The Holy Spirit is not bound by anything!

He's changing lives in hard-to-reach places. Five of the top 10 nations for indicated decisions through hope with God have populations of less than 8% Christian.

03 New believers grow in Christ.

They flourish day by day.

New believers are invited to let us walk alongside them as they take their first steps. They can immediately download the Made New discipleship e-book, and receive short, daily discipleship emails for the first 50 days of their new life in Christ.

They're given the option to join our 20M-strong social media community to connect with believers from all around the world from diverse cultures and backgrounds. People pray for each other across continents and encourage each other in their faith.

On social media, they receive daily scriptural encouragement and videos from Andrew and Wendy Palau.

God put you and me on the planet for such a time as this. When He created lithium, carbon, and copper, He knew they would one day be part of a smartphone. And He created each precious soul that would one day be gazing into a phone's blue light, feeling lonely—ready to give up hope.

This unique window in human history—of rapid globalization and open access to share the Gospel on the largest digital advertising platforms may not last forever. But in this moment, stewarding the Gospel well means utilizing these tools to reach as many people as we can. And it's working! Millions are coming alive in Christ. Let's not grow weary. Every Movement Needs the GOSPEL MESSAGE

This is our vision behind City Gospel Movements

BY: LAURA NZIRIMU, CGM Program Manager

The Luis Palau Association is passionate about the Gospel, believing it truly is Good News for everyone, everywhere. We're known for proclaiming this Good News, uniting the Church, and impacting cities worldwide, and we've been doing this work for years.

One core part of this mission is supporting the local Church in ongoing city movements. This strengthens their combined unity and increases the priority and urgency of evangelism in their city now and for generations to come.

Through Palau's support, cities across North America are developing teams of strategic local leaders from church, nonprofit, and business sectors, who are passionate about helping churches raise the temperature of evangelism in their city. Evangelism Teams (E-Teams) rally around the local Church to inspire more effective, consistent Gospel proclamation and equip the Church for ongoing discipleship so that people come to know Jesus and grow in their relationship with Him.

Missing The Message

FOR MORE THAN 60 YEARS the Luis Palau Association has partnered with local churches to proclaim the Gospel in cities around the globe, reaching millions of people with the life-changing message of Jesus.

As we've served, we've found that many churches are actively involved in serving their city, yet often do so without including a clear Gospel proclamation.

It's easy to assume Gospel conversations happen naturally as we serve others or simply go about our day. But do they? We've found that without a sustained, focused effort on evangelism, the evangelistic temperature wanes.

We learned this firsthand in our hometown of Portland. Through conversations with local leaders and pastors, we realized that we had not been nearly as intentional about maintaining sustainable, citywide evangelism as we had been about our efforts to serve the community.

Without intentionality, our desire to share the Gospel often remains unspoken.

Pastors and church leaders asked us for help. They have many competing priorities and many feel that they are not primarily gifted as evangelists. Believers may also view evangelism as a special calling for a specific few versus a mandate to the entire Church. Championing evangelism can feel overwhelming for pastors and congregants alike.

Elevating Evangelism

THE PALAU ASSOCIATION draws upon our trusted relationships with local church leaders and our decades of experience in evangelism to elevate, celebrate, and accelerate faith-sharing in cities across the country. Palau is a leader in evangelism around the globe, championing the Gospel for more than 60 years.

Beyond festivals, and in cities where there has been no festival, Palau staff intentionally cultivate deep relationships within city movements by regularly traveling across the country to speak and encourage leaders, as well as connecting consistently through phone, email, and video conversations.

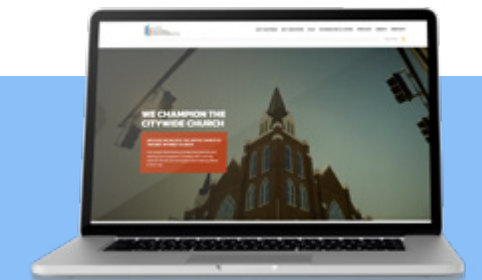

Whatever the method, deep mutual relationships are the core goal, every step of the way.

By connecting those with a passion for their city, a heart for unity, and a desire to make Jesus known, Palau serves the local church and raises the temperature of evangelism in the city.

Raising the Evangelistic Temperature of a City of the Gospel in culturally relevant ways is necessary to the flourishing of our cities. The expression takes many forms, including:

COMMUNICATING THE MESSAGE

- Friendship evangelism training to inspire and equip believers to share their faith with friends, coworkers, and neighbors
- Digital evangelism training to equip and encourage believers to start Gospel conversations through social media
- More churches hosting Alpha courses to provide a space for seekers and skeptics to ask questions about faith
- Bold Gospel proclamation from the pulpit
- Consistent storytelling about real-time Gospel conversations to help faith-sharing feel relevant and attainable
- Regular corporate and personal prayer for the lost to cultivate a heart for and awareness of those around us who don't yet know Jesus

The goal is for faith-sharing to become an integral part of the identity, and longing, of believers in the citywide Church.

This looks like a deep, ongoing relationship with local government and ministry leaders, based on mutual respect. It also looks like more individuals hearing the Gospel and receiving the Good News for the first time through the catalytic influence of the Evangelism Team:

- Large-scale evangelistic events
- Personal conversations with believers who are confident and equipped to share their faith
- Alpha groups which are increasing in number across the city
- Clear Gospel presentations from the pulpit as believers invite their nonbelieving friends to church

Increasing the temperature of evangelism in a city like Portland not only warms the faith of believers but casts this warmth out like a beacon to those who are searching for God.

City Impact

PEOPLE AND CITIES TRANSFORMED BY THE GOSPEL

As you've probably come to learn with Palau, our vision is seldom small. We serve a big God who has called us to big things. As such, our vision for this effort over the next two years is big. We aim to help develop 35 Evangelism Teams by the end of 2022, and 50 Evangelism Teams by 2023. Currently there are 19 cities with Evangelism Teams across North America.

Each Evangelism Team represents a team of churches passionate about reaching their city with the Gospel of Jesus Christ in an ongoing, sustainable way that will impact countless individuals now and for years to come.

COLLABORATION IS KEY:

In every city, a unique combination of churches and ministry leaders work together to elevate evangelism in their communities. Some national ministry partners of the Palau Team in cities across North America include: Gloop, Alpha, Cru, OneHope & Young Life, Saturate, and YouVersion.

We're so excited for this next chapter. God is moving in mighty ways. He is not only using us to impact cities and change lives through large-scale evangelistic festivals, He is using us to change the culture in cities and raise high the banner of biblical evangelism so that the Good News will be shared for generations to come.

TOOLS AND RESOURCES

gloop: connecting seekers and skeptics with the local church through cutting-edge technology

OneHope & Young Life: helping youth know Jesus, grow in their faith, and share Him with others

Alpha: supporting the church to facilitate space for seekers and believers to have honest conversations about life, faith, and meaning

YouVersion: hosting devotional series using seeker and skeptic-friendly language developed by LPA and collaborative partners

CRU: building up believers in a movement of faith-sharing and discipleship

Saturate: discipling believers to “be the church” and make Jesus known.

Whenever our team gets invited to lead a festival in a city, we praise the Lord for the blessing of partnering alongside local churches to bring the Good News to many who don't yet know Jesus. What is even more special are those times when we are invited to return to a place years later to continue to build on how God moved in the past through a Palau campaign. And that's exactly what we just experienced in Connecticut.

The first time we were invited to hold a campaign in Connecticut was 21 years ago. That campaign in 2001 established many long-term relationships within the community. In 2015, we were invited to return once again, as part of our historic New York City campaign which included festivals in Central Park and Times Square.

This year, Andrew Palau and the team were invited to partner with local churches and believers to once again reach the region with the clear Gospel message. This time, the campaign would be called CT CityFest, and the focus would be all of Southwest Connecticut. Many of the churches and leaders involved in CT CityFest were involved in the previous efforts and were

Gabrielle Beam, from Saturate Bridgeport, shared, “I got to do a lot of collaborative work with CityServe and see the unity of the Body strengthened quite tremendously...Being able to pull that together under the CityFest and CityServe banner was a real pleasure.”

Even more, churches were aware of how impactful a movement like this could be for their region: “The vision of our church is to create the largest soul-saving effort Bridgeport has ever seen and it doesn’t have to be in our house. It can be through [CityFest]. It doesn’t have to happen just through us. If it’s a big deal, we want to be a part of it. We want to put our hands on it and give blessing to it in the region because we know that God is going to be glorified through it...I just want to see the city of Bridgeport revolutionized by the Gospel of Jesus Christ,” shared Pastor Luis Burgos, of Citywide Church.

These gatherings led up to the two-day festival event, where Southwest Connecticut showed up in droves. Local churches and believers, alongside the Palau Association, poured their time, energy, and resources into this festival and the surrounding movement for over a year. We saw the fruit that came from that effort as people responded to the Gospel and indicated decisions for Jesus.

The evangelistic festival featured award-winning artists TobyMac, Lecrae, We Are Messengers, Blanca, Megan Duke, Zenzo and Impact Music, and semi-finalist from “America’s Got Talent”, Amanda Mammana. Andrew Palau shared a clear Gospel message and challenged those in the crowd—as well as those who tuned in online to the English and Spanish livestreams—to give their lives to Jesus Christ.

“So many people are struggling right now. They have questions about God. Is He real? Does He care about me? Is there any hope for me?” shared Andrew Palau. “That is why we’re here in Connecticut, to let everyone in the region know that God is real, and He is good! He loves you and He wants the best for you. He sent His son, Jesus, to die for you so that you may have life! There’s nothing more important or life-changing than that reality. This is good news—the best news! That is what CT CityFest is all about.”

The festival also hosted a family fun zone (in partnership with Kids Blitz), stunt demos from professional skaters, BMX, and FMX athletes (in partnership with The Stunt Dudes), and multiple presentations of the Gospel throughout the day. And praise God with us, more than 800 people responded to the Gospel through this effort!

One festival volunteer asked a 7-year-old boy and his little brother why they raised their hands during the Gospel offer. He simply responded, “We need Jesus!” The volunteer shared her amazement, observing that, “even at a young age, kids feel the love of God drawing them, and they are not confused about it. They know they need Jesus.”

What a joy it is to see lives changed through the Good News of Jesus! This is what it is all about. Celebrate with us all that was accomplished through this campaign. 🎉

CT CITYFEST COULDN’T HAVE HAPPENED WITHOUT FRIENDS LIKE YOU.

You helped reach Southwest Connecticut with the Gospel in powerful and tangible ways. While the major evangelistic festival at Seaside Park on August 27-28 reached many in person and online, this campaign included several other initiatives reaching key groups throughout the region:

- Wendy shared the Gospel, along with her own personal story of hope, during two gatherings for women.
- Andrew encouraged young professionals and business leaders with the Good News at a special gathering in the week leading up to the festival.
- A Gen Z worship night brought together the younger generation for a time of worship and prayer, specifically praying for key concerns for their generation—such as anxiety, depression, and suicide.
- More than 300 pastors and leaders attended our Pastors and Leaders Conference.
- Our RE:NEW gathering had more than 1,400 people attend in person and 300 online. 675 Prayer Cards were filled out and more than 175 churches were represented.

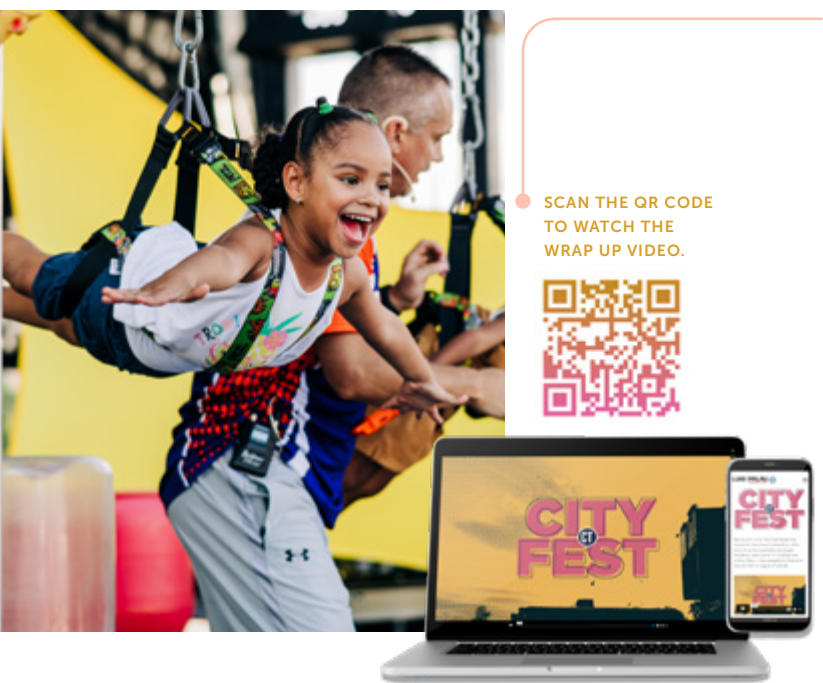

the initiators for this new initiative to reach the next generation with God’s message of hope.

“We stand together for good days ahead. My dad was here 20 years ago and saw God move in tremendous ways,” Andrew told the crowd at the festival, “But the best is yet to come for Southwest Connecticut. I truly believe that. We look back for various reasons—to learn, to rejoice, to reflect. But we look forward to the future because there is hope for us, hope for Southwest Connecticut. And that hope is found in Jesus Christ!”

More than 175 local churches, businesses, and nonprofits, as well as thousands of local believers, came together to proclaim the Gospel on a massive scale, leading to thousands of people being introduced to Jesus Christ in Bridgeport and throughout the entire region.

This truly was a special initiative that united many churches in the area. Over the past several months, we have seen the Lord unite the Church through our Relationship Evangelism Training, RE:NEW gathering, CityServe outreaches, and so much more.

The Joy of the

GOSPEL

JOY

As Andrew and I travel the world, we really have one main goal—to share the Gospel. We are so blessed to see firsthand the way it changes people—the tears and smiles of joy, relief, repentance, and love. We know that the Gospel reaches people’s hearts in a way that nothing else can.

But when was the last time you felt the beautiful, simple, ancient truths of the Good News touch your heart? As believers, we know the Gospel is true, but sometimes we get so used to hearing it that we stop experiencing its joy. This year, I asked God to personally refresh me in the joy of the Gospel. Here’s what He highlighted to me...

FOR BY GRACE
YOU HAVE BEEN SAVED THROUGH FAITH AND THIS NOT YOUR OWN DOING;

IT IS THE GIFT OF GOD

EPHESIANS 2:8-9 ESV

GRACE

EPHESIANS 2 SAYS it’s by grace we have been saved. In Greek, grace means God’s consistent leaning toward us to share benefits. Grace is so hard for us to wrap our minds around because we are not naturally gracious people. Even for us who walk with God, grace does not come easily or automatically. The day we were saved, He offered grace, and we received it.

But at times, I’ve wondered. Is He still leaning toward me to offer me benefit? After all the years, struggles, and failures? Yes! The grace He gave from day one is the same grace we need today, and He gives it freely.

He’s not tired of you.
He still loves you.
He still wants to be with you.

God’s posture of leaning toward us is never revoked. Thank you, Lord, for grace!

PEACE I LEAVE WITH YOU;

MY PEACE I GIVE YOU...

I DO NOT GIVE TO YOU AS THE WORLD GIVES. DO
NOT LET YOUR HEARTS BE TROUBLED AND
DO NOT BE AFRAID.

JOHN 14:27

PEACE

EVEN THOUGH THE world is deeply divided, peace is a universal desire. The first result of sin in the garden was division between God and mankind. Immediately, God began the process of restoring us to peace with Himself. The very first thing Jesus said when He saw the disciples in John 20 is “peace be with you.”

The division between man and God was repaired through the resurrection. The closeness we were always meant to have with Almighty God...He restored it. Thank You, Lord, for Your peace.

“DO NOT BE AFRAID,
LITTLE FLOCK, FOR YOUR FATHER HAS BEEN PLEASED TO GIVE YOU
THE KINGDOM.”

LUKE 12:32

PURPOSE

GOD CREATED US with a deep need to make a difference in this world. Ephesians 2 tells us we’re God’s workmanship, created to do good works. We are here to know Him intimately and to make Him known.

Think about the demon-possessed man in Mark 5, crying out day and night, cutting himself with stones. He was tormented, but Jesus saved him from a legion of demons. As Jesus was leaving, the man said to him, Please...I want to go with you! Jesus said, No, go back to your family and tell them what I’ve done for you. But instead, the man went to Decapolis, which means 10 cities, and told everyone what Jesus had done. He found his purpose through the power and the kindness of God—spreading the Good News far and wide. Thank you, Lord, for giving us purpose!

“FOR I KNOW THE
PLANS I HAVE FOR YOU,
DECLARES THE LORD,
‘PLANS TO PROSPER YOU
AND NOT TO HARM YOU,
PLANS TO GIVE YOU
HOPE AND A FUTURE.’”

JEREMIAH 29:11

AS CHRIST’S FOLLOWERS, we’re not free to do whatever we want. Our lives belong to Jesus. It doesn’t seem like freedom at first, but as we walk with God, we begin to taste it.

We are free from paying the consequences of our sin. Andrew often says, your mother-in-law might tell you to go to hell but you don’t have to go there—you can come to Heaven with me. I always loved that one. We have freedom from death!

We’re free from fear. Even as people who walk with Jesus, we’re overwhelmed by fear at times, but the Lord says, “No, you’re free from fear, I have got you.”

We’re free to know God. But, there’s a lie from the pit of hell that says If you know yourself, you’ll find freedom. I did that for many years—the most miserable years of my life. As I looked inward, I spiraled into a dark place. But finally, I looked out, saw Jesus, and everything changed. I found light, life, and freedom. Thank You, Lord, for freedom!

POWER

WE HAVE HIS HOLY SPIRIT—His presence with power. It takes us beyond our own capabilities, changing who we are.

One day, ministering in Pakistan, there was a knock on the hotel door. It was the lady who cleaned, asking me to pray for her husband. He was crippled, and with their three kids, life was tough. I said, Of course, I would love to pray. Are you a Christian? She said, No, I’m Hindu. I said, Well, I pray to Yesu because Yesu is the only one with the power to heal. She said, Okay. I believe He can heal. We got on our knees, right there, and prayed. She sought me out because Christians worldwide are known as people of power. The Bible says we’re indwelt with the power of the Holy Spirit—the same power that raised Jesus from the dead. Thank you, God, that we are people of power!

We truly are people of grace, peace, freedom, purpose, family, and power. And this is the joy of the Gospel—our identity in Him.

I know you believe the Gospel, but...maybe you’ve lost the joy of knowing who you are in Christ. Let’s remember together! When we embrace these truths, we’re transformed.

Will you read Ephesians 1-3 today, and ask God to fill your heart with the joy of the unsearchable riches of Christ? 📖

FAMILY

THE GOSPEL BROUGHT us into God’s family. He predestined us to be adopted as His children. We adopted our daughter from Ethiopia when she was a tiny baby; now she’s 14! And every day I’m reminded of Ephesians 1 where Paul says, “In accordance with His pleasure and will, He adopted us.” Sometimes, people comment, What a lovely thing you’ve done adopting this child. And I’ll say No, no, it was our pleasure and our will. We wanted her! She’s our child!

It is God’s pleasure to adopt us into His family. Jesus wants us to be with Him, to live with him intimately. Imagine His kindness and generosity—He knows us in the deep fabric of our being and still loves us. Thank you, Lord, for bringing us into Your family!

LET’S PRAY TOGETHER...

Oh Lord, when we consider who You are and what You’ve done, we’re so grateful. You call us to joy. Not joy that we keep for ourselves, but joy that flows out of us, to the people around us, however imperfectly. Revive our hearts,
Lord—we need it. Help us be Your conduits of joy to this world. We love You.

In Your name,
amen.

BY WENDY PALAU

“IT IS GOD’S PLEASURE TO ADOPT US INTO HIS FAMILY. JESUS WANTS US TO BE WITH HIM, TO LIVE WITH HIM INTIMATELY!”

Continuing the Legacy

BY: ANDREW PALAU

More than a year after his passing, Dad's memory still stands strong in the hearts and minds of so many. And we can rejoice—his legacy lives on as God's favor continues to rest on the Luis Palau Association and our work around the world.

Dad (and Mom) built this ministry 40 years ago out of a deep passion for the lost. His vision and goal were clear—to reach as many people as possible with the Good News. To boldly share the hope of Christ. And that is what we continue to do—in honor of Dad, but even more so, in honor of the Lord. We continue to stand strong for the Gospel. To proclaim it boldly. To unite the Church in this vision. To train up God's people for this mighty work. And to win as many to Jesus as possible. And we praise the Lord for friends like you who stand shoulder to shoulder with us in this fight, continuing the legacy.

One of the joys of this past year since Dad passed has been the many stories that have come to us as a family and team. So many people have joyfully shared how God used Luis to bring conviction of sin, to offer them hope and forgiveness, and to usher them into the gift of God that is a new life of forgiveness and peace in Christ. And I'm not just talking about a few individuals. We have been flooded with testimonies from all over the world. Literally thousands of people. What a joy! I love it. It's what we live for—to see lives transformed.

Today, we have the privilege of carrying this work forward—the legacy of Luis Palau and the power of the Gospel proclaimed. Luis tilled the soil. He planted the seed. He reaped a tremendous harvest and cared for it so that the fruit would remain and multiply...all in the power and guidance of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. Now it's a new season. A new day. And just as the Bible says in John 4:35: "I tell you, open your eyes and look at the fields! They are ripe for harvest."

Thank you for your continued partnership in this kingdom work. We love you and we are honored to serve with you.
